

Mainers think government is not doing enough on health care.

Maine people do not think that government is overextended in health care. On the contrary, most think that government is not doing enough.

Do you think government is doing enough...	Enough	Not enough	Too Much	Don't know
... To help working parents with low incomes to get and pay for health care	26%	65%	3%	6%
... To help people with chronic illnesses or disabilities get and pay for health care	34%	54%	2%	9%
... To help seniors get and pay for health care	28%	65%	2%	5%
... To help children get health care	31%	60%	2%	8%
... To help people who lose their jobs get and pay for health care	31%	55%	4%	10%

From: O'Hara, Frank and Lisa Pohlmann. MaineCare Matters: Mainers Share Their Views. Maine Center for Economic Policy. March 2006. A public opinion poll conducted in December 2005.